

Rev. Peter Galbraith

Peter Galbraith became pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Nelsonville, Ohio in February of 2011. Prior to coming to Nelsonville, Peter worked as a hospital chaplain at Providence Holy Cross Medical Center in Mission Hills, California.

He also taught English as a second language for three years in Vietnam and served there another two years in organizational leadership. Peter has a B.A. from Miami University of Ohio, and both an M.A. in Cross-Cultural Studies and M.Div. from Fuller Theological Seminary.

Peter is involved locally with Food for Thought, a campus ministry at Hocking College, The Athens Foundation, and the Nelsonville Rotary Club. In his free time, Peter loves a good match of tennis, good film and television, quality time with his spouse, Annie Laurie, and staying connected with family and friends near and far.
