

8:45am: Shabbat Morning Service with Spiritual Leader Jessica K. Shimberg
(OhIPL Board Member and Senior Rabbinical Student)

As Jews around the planet move toward the Yamim Nora'im (the Days of Awe which begin with Rosh Hashanah and conclude with Yom Kippur), we enter a period of deep reflection and contemplation ~ Cheshbon Ha'Nefesh (a soul accounting). The central work of the Jewish holy day season is teshuvah (often translated from Hebrew as “repentance,” the Hebrew root is about turning ... we turn back toward our best selves and a right path). Jessica will lead an abbreviated Shabbat morning service on the themes of the weekly Torah portion and environmental teshuvah,
